

Patrick Hume

Pat is a native Californian whose family roots in Elk Grove date back to the 1940s. Pat grew up in Elk Grove and attended Kerr Middle School. He served on the City of Elk Grove Planning Commission from incorporation until March of 2006 and was elected to the City Council the same year (2006).

Pat is an active community volunteer who contributes his time and talent as an auctioneer and emcee at several local events each year. Pat serves as the Vice President and Chair of Program Development for the Elk Grove Regional Scholarship Foundation and is the founder of the Foundation's annual Spotlight Elk Grove fundraiser event. Pat is also deeply dedicated to veterans and has been a driving force behind the City's Veteran and Public Safety Street Naming Program.

Pat works for Emerald Park Company, the homebuilding company founded by his grandfather in 1964. Pat is married to Lisa Hume. He enjoys camping, golfing, skiing and fishing.
